It is important that you read this document carefully. We recommend that you keep it with your insurance certificate which includes your travel insurance certificate number.

PART 1 - PRODUCT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Welcome

To help you understand our travel insurance, we have produced this Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which provides you with some important information to enable you to compare and make an informed decision about the policy.

About Us

This travel Insurance has been arranged and brokered by Rostand Pty Ltd T/as Tony Bemrose Insurance Brokers AFSL 245562 and is authorised to advise and deal in general insurance products to wholesale and/or retail clients. Tony Bemrose Insurance Brokers does not issue, guarantee or underwrite this policy.

This insurance is issued by Chase Underwriting Pty Ltd (AFSL number 454344). Chase Underwriting Pty Ltd (Chase Underwriting) is an Australian Financial Services Licensee and is authorised by ASIC to issue, deal in and provide general advice on general insurance products.

Chase Underwriting Pty Ltd has under Binding Authority no: B6839A11366AAA been authorised by Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's of London (Insurer) to act on its behalf in arranging, issuing, varying, cancelling and providing general advice in relation to the Insurer's travel insurance products. Chase Underwriting Pty Ltd issues certificates of insurance under a binding authority with Lloyd's of London.

Chase Underwriting Pty Ltd has a binding authority which means it can enter into, vary or cancel these products on the Insurer's behalf without reference to the Insurer provided it acts within the binding authority. Chase Underwriting Pty Ltd acts for the Insurer and not you. Contact details can be found on pages 10 and 11.

About Your Travel Insurance Policy

Your policy is a contract between the Insurer and you. Your insurance policy is comprised of:

- the Policy Wording including the Schedule of Cover;
- your application for insurance;
- your Certificate of Insurance; and
- any written endorsements we provide to you.

These items make up your policy and should be carefully read together. It is important that they are kept in a safe place.

The annual multi-trip insurance policies are issued on an annual non-renewable basis. It is a requirement that at the beginning of each policy period that you complete a new policy application including a pre-existing condition questionnaire (as applicable).

The Cost Of This Insurance

When calculating the cost of your travel insurance, we take a number of factors into account, including:

- where you are travelling to;
- how long you are travelling;
- the level of cover you have chosen; and
- how old you are.

The amount payable by you for the travel plan selected and any additional cover you choose will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance, including compulsory government charges. This policy is only valid when you pay the amount payable and a Certificate of Insurance is issued to you.

Who Can Buy This Insurance?

This travel insurance is available for Australian citizens who maintain domiciled status in Australia and for non Australian citizens who have been resident in Australia for a period of not less than 3 months. You do not have domiciled status if you have permanently migrated to another country or your permanent place of abode is outside Australia.

Australians already overseas?

Our insurance is appropriate if you are an Australian resident and are overseas intending to return to Australia on the date your policy ends.

Area Of Travel

You are covered for trips to countries within the following areas provided that you have paid the appropriate premium, as shown in your Certificate of Insurance. You must select the area that covers your entire trip.

- Worldwide including USA and Canada
- Worldwide excluding USA and Canada other than stopovers not exceeding 48 hours.
- Pacific including New Zealand, Fiji and Bali including stopovers in other areas not exceeding 48 hours (single trip policies only).

Updating This PDS

We will update the information in this PDS when necessary. A paper copy of any updated information is available to you at no cost by calling us. We will issue you with a new PDS or a supplementary PDS, where the update is to correct a misleading or deceptive statement or an omission, which is materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person deciding whether to purchase this insurance. Once an application has been accepted and a certificate of insurance issued, the policy wording in the Product Disclosure Statement in force at the time of the application is the basis of the cover.

Date That This PDS Was Prepared

This PDS was prepared on 01 November 2020 and remains valid until a further PDS is issued to replace it.

Cooling Off Period/Premium Refund

If, having purchased the policy, you want to cancel it, you can do so within 14 business days of receiving the Certificate of Insurance and obtain a full refund, provided you have not made a claim and your trip has not commenced. We will arrange for a refund of the amount payable within 15 business days of you cancelling your policy. We can only accept a request for cancellation via our website. Please visit our contact us page at www.tbib.com.au/tbib-travel-insurance.php

Cancellation By Us

We can cancel your insurance in any way permitted by law, including if you have:

- failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure;
- made a misrepresentation to us before the policy was entered into;
- failed to comply with a provision of a policy, including failure to pay the amount payable;
- made a fraudulent claim under the policy; or
- failed to notify us of a specific act or omission as required by the policy.

If we cancel your policy, we will do so by giving you a minimum of three day's written notice. We will deduct from the amount payable, an amount to cover the shortened period for which you have been insured by us and refund the balance to you.

Confirming Cover

A Certificate of Insurance which is your proof of insurance, will be issued and sent to your nominated email address once you have completed your online application and you have paid the appropriate amount.

Your Duty Of Disclosure - What You Must Tell Us

You have a Duty of Disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) that requires you to tell us certain things. Before you purchase a policy with us or ask to amend an existing policy, we will ask you a series of questions. You must tell us everything you know or which a reasonable person in the circumstances would be expected to know in answering the questions in the online application. You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

The answers you provide will help us to decide:

- whether we will insure you or amend your policy as you have requested;
- the amount we will charge you; and
- whether any special conditions will apply to your policy.

You do not have to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes the risk;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or should know in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer; or
- which we indicate we do not want to know.

Everyone who is insured under the policy must comply with the Duty of Disclosure. If you provide information about another insured person, you do this on their behalf. If you (or they) don't comply with the Duty of Disclosure, we may reduce the amount of any claim and/or cancel your policy. If fraud is involved, we may treat your insurance as void from the beginning.

Group Bookings

The person purchasing an insurance policy on behalf of a group must ensure that every person to be insured has been advised to read this PDS/Policy Wording and their attention drawn to the exclusions and conditions contained herein. The person purchasing the policy is required to answer all questions on behalf of all persons to be insured to the best of their knowledge and belief and should undertake all reasonable steps to obtain the required information in respect of each and every person to be insured.

General Insurance Code Of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice (Code), which is a self regulatory code for use by all insurers. The Insurer is a member of the Insurance Council of Australia, and a signatory to the Code. The Insurer, Tony Bemrose Insurance Brokers and Chase Underwriting Pty Ltd support the Code, the objective of which is to raise the levels of practice and service in the general insurance industry. For more information visit www.codeofpractice.com.au.

Dispute Resolution Process

We view seriously any complaint about our products or services and will deal with it promptly and fairly.

How To Make A Claim

Please refer to the details on page 10.

How We Protect Your Privacy

Please refer to our Privacy Notice on page 10.

Taxation Implications - Goods And Service Tax (GST)

International travel insurance is GST exempt. However, if you are registered for GST, you should tell us the percentage of GST you are able to claim back on normal business purchases. If you suffer a loss and replace the lost item or are provided with goods or services in respect of the loss after you return to Australia, we will only reimburse you the amount of your loss in accordance with this policy, less any entitlement you have to an Input Tax Credit on the amount.

Amendment Of Personal Or Travel Details

We can only accept a request to change your personal or travel details via our website.

Please visit our contact us page at www.tbib.com.au/tbib-travel-insurance.php

We will either amend the policy if there is no additional premium to be paid or will contact you directly to discuss further.

Travel Advice

The Australian Government website www.smarttraveller.gov.au provides detailed travel advice about all worldwide destinations. It is important that you refer to this as the policy may exclude cover if you travel to a destination where the Government is advising "Do not travel".

Automatic Extension Of Cover

If you have not completed your travel before the expiry date of the insurance for reasons which are beyond your control, this insurance will remain in force until completion not exceeding a further 21 days without additional premium. In the event of you being hijacked or held to ransom, cover shall continue whilst you are subject to the control of the person(s) or their associates making the hijack or ransom demand, and during travel direct to your domicile and/or original destination for a period not exceeding twelve months from the date of the hijack or ransom.

Automatic Reinstatement Of Sums Insured

The amount you are covered for under sections 5 and 6 only as shown in the Schedule of Cover shall be reinstated following the first valid claim under such section. Thereafter the amount payable shall be reduced by the amount of any subsequent valid claims. In respect of an Annual Multi-Trip policy the sums insured under each section of the policy as shown in the Schedule of Cover are automatically reinstated on completion of each trip and in respect of sections 5 and 6, also once on each trip.

Period Of Insurance

Except as stated below, cover for each separate trip under this insurance starts when you leave your home or place of business in your normal country of residence at the start of your trip, and finishes immediately when you return to your home or place of business in your normal country of residence for any reason, or on the nominated expiry date shown on your travel insurance certificate, whichever is the sooner. For Cancellation only (Section 1), cover starts from the date shown on your certificate of insurance or the date you book your trip, whichever is the later. Personal Money (Section 6) will be covered from the time of collection from the Bank, 72 hours prior to departure or issue of this policy, whichever is the later.

Except as stated elsewhere, cover for each separate trip under this insurance starts when you leave your home or place of business in Australia at the start of your trip, and finishes immediately when you return to your home or place of business in Australia for any reason.

If you have paid the appropriate Annual Multi Trip travel insurance premium the overall period of insurance is noted on your policy certificate. This insurance then covers an unlimited number of business/leisure trips starting within that period. Unless otherwise noted on your schedule, cover for any single trip ceases on your return to Australia, the policy expiry date or at 90 days (45 days if aged 81 years or over) whichever is the lesser.

For annual multi trip policies, trips wholly within Australia are covered if the trip is a minimum distance of 100 kms from your place of residence.

Currency Conversion

Settlement of claims for expenditure incurred overseas will be made at the rate of conversion applicable at the time of the loss or expense.

Limits Of Cover

Our total liability is limited to the amounts shown in the Schedule of Cover on page 4.

PART 2 - POLICY WORDING

Provided you have paid the appropriate premium as shown in your travel insurance certificate, you are covered in accordance with the full wording shown herein up to the limits indicated in the Schedule of Cover. The limits apply per person. Excess is defined in definitions below.

Application of excesses

Unless otherwise stated, the excess applies for each person and each section of each claim.

Definitions

Listed below are certain words that appear throughout the policy. In all cases they will have the meanings shown below.

Accident means a single sudden and unexpected event, which occurs at an identifiable time and place and which causes unexpected Bodily Injury at the time it occurs.

Bodily Injury means a specific physical injury caused by an Accident. An injury is a Bodily Injury only if it is the direct consequence of an Accident and is not the accumulation of a series of accidents or traumas and if it is not directly or indirectly caused by, contributed to by and/or aggravated by any physical impairment, defect, degenerative process or infirmity existing prior to the inception of this Policy.

Baggage and personal effects means your suitcases, trunks and similar containers including their contents and articles worn or carried by you. It does not mean any bicycle, business samples or items that you intend to trade, valuables, passport or travel documents, cash, bank notes, currency notes, cheques, negotiable instruments, watercraft of any type (other than surfboards), furniture, furnishings, household appliances, hired items or any other item listed as excluded on your Certificate of Insurance.

Breakdown (for the purpose of Section 9) means that the vehicle in which you are travelling stops as a result of mechanical or electrical failure due to any cause other than lack of fuel, oil or water.

Business Colleague means any person that you work closely with whose absence for a period of one or more complete days necessitates the cancellation or curtailment of the trip as certified by a director of the business.

1 Cancellation Fees, Lost Deposits And Curtailment

You are covered up to the amount shown in the Schedule of Cover in the event your trip is necessarily and unavoidably cancelled prior to departure or curtailed before completion because of any of the following events first occurring during the period of insurance:

- a. the accidental serious injury, serious illness or death of you, your relative, your travelling companion, your business colleague or person with whom you intend to stay at the trip destination.
- b. medical complications related to a pregnancy, as certified by your Doctor, where the expected birth is more than 18 weeks after you are booked to return home.
- c. pregnancy that is confirmed during the period of insurance, where the expected birth is less than 18 weeks after you are booked to return home.
- d. your receipt of a summons for jury service, being subpoenaed as a court witness or being placed in compulsory quarantine.
- e. your unexpected requirement for emergency and unavoidable duty as a member of the armed forces, police, fire, nursing, ambulance or coastguard services resulting in cancellation of previously agreed leave.
- f. your redundancy, provided that you are entitled to payment under the current redundancy payments legislation and that at the time of booking your trip you had no reason to believe that you would be made redundant.
- g. your presence being required to make your property safe and secure following fire, flood or burglary that causes serious damage to your home occurring within 48 hours of departure, or whilst you are away.

For cancellation pre-departure:

In the event you necessarily cancel your planned trip due to any of the above noted reasons, you are covered in respect of either (1) irrecoverable deposits or payments made for unused travel and accommodation paid in advance or contracted to be paid; or (2) at our option, for the additional costs for alternative transport incurred to travel at a later date or by another route to reach your destination.

For curtailment post-departure:

You are covered in respect of reasonable additional costs for travel and accommodation, a proportionate refund of unused and irrecoverable travel bookings and the original value of unused airfares which cannot be used excluding airfares for an Insured Person to return to their normal country of residence in the event you necessarily curtail your trip due to any of the above noted reasons.

You are not covered for

- a. any claim which is excluded under the General Exclusions applicable to this policy.
- b. The first part of each and every claim as shown in the Schedule of Cover (the Excess) applicable per section.
- c. any expenses that would normally have been incurred during your trip.
- d. an Epidemic, Pandemic or outbreak of an infectious disease or any derivative or mutation of such viruses (or arising directly or indirectly from these) or the threat, or perceived threat, of any of these.
- e. any claim arising out of pregnancy where you are travelling against your doctor's advice and/or if expecting to give birth within 17 weeks of completing your trip and/or pregnancy up to 23 weeks gestation at the date the policy ends, where complications exist relating to this pregnancy, it is a multiple pregnancy and/or the pregnancy is the result of assisted reproductive programmes.
- f. any claim which results from any condition or circumstance known to you at the time of applying for insurance where this condition or circumstance could reasonably be expected to result in the cancellation or curtailment of your trip.
- g. any cost incurred in respect of visas required in connection with the trip. The provision, loss or subsequent replacement of visas or passports, other than as specifically included under Section 6 hereunder.
- h. pre-travel inoculations.
- i. delays or rescheduling by a bus line, airline, shipping line or rail authority.
- j. your disinclination to travel or your loss of enjoyment.

Conditions

1. Frequent flyer or similar flight reward programmes – claims for points lost due to the cancellation of your airline ticket will be reimbursed based on the nominated cash value for those points given by the reward programme operator. We will not provide cover if the loss of such points or their value can be recovered from any other source.

2. It is a requirement of this Insurance that if you
- a. become aware of any circumstances which make it necessary for you to cancel your trip prior to departure, you must advise your travel providers in writing within 48 hours. The maximum amount we will pay will be limited to the applicable cancellation charges at that time.
 - b. wish to return home differently to your original plans and claim any additional costs under this insurance, you must contact our nominated emergency service and obtain their agreement to the new arrangements. Failure to do so may affect the assessment of your claim.

Please also refer to the General Exclusions and Conditions of this policy.

2 Overseas Medical Expenses And Assistance

You are covered up to the amount shown in the Schedule of Cover for necessary and reasonable costs incurred as a result of your bodily injury, illness or death during your trip in respect of:

- a. emergency medical, surgical and hospital treatment and transportation. At the sole discretion of the Insurer, who reserves the right to make the final decision as to whether or not it is medically necessary, this also includes the cost of repatriation to your normal country of residence, by whatever means deemed medically necessary. The cost of emergency dental treatment to natural teeth is covered up to the amount shown in the Schedule of Cover provided that it is only for the immediate relief of pain.
- b. additional travel and accommodation expenses (to a level comparable with your pre-booked travel and accommodation) to enable you to return home if you are unable to continue your trip as originally planned and where your return home is certified by a doctor to be strictly necessary on medical grounds.
- c. additional travel and accommodation expenses (comparable with your pre-booked travel and accommodation) in circumstances where it is not medically necessary for you to return home but where you are certified medically unfit to travel and/or continue your trip as originally planned. Such costs must be additional and where your illness/injury causes you to lose the benefit of prepaid accommodation elsewhere.
- d. additional travel and accommodation expenses (to a level comparable with your pre-booked travel and accommodation) for:
 - i. a travelling companion to stay with you and accompany you home where their presence is certified by a doctor to be strictly necessary on medical grounds; or
 - ii. a relative or friend to travel from your normal country of residence to stay with you and accompany you home where their presence is certified by a doctor to be strictly necessary on medical grounds.
- e. returning your remains to your home or a funeral in the country where you died, up to the equivalent cost of returning your remains to your normal country of residence.

The maximum payable under parts d and e is $100,000.

You are not covered for

- a. any claim which is excluded under the General Exclusions applicable to this policy.
- b. the first part of each and every claim as shown in the Schedule of Cover (the Excess) applicable per section.
- c. any claim arising out of pregnancy where you are travelling against your doctor's advice and/or if expecting to give birth within 17 weeks of completing your trip and/or pregnancy up to 23 weeks gestation at the date the policy ends, where complications exist relating to this pregnancy, it is a multiple pregnancy and/or the pregnancy is the result of assisted reproductive programmes.
- d. any treatment or surgery
 - i. which is not immediately necessary and can wait until you return home.

- ii. which in the opinion of our nominated emergency service is considered to be cosmetic, experimental, preventive or elective.
- iii. carried out in your normal country of residence or more than 12 months from the date of the accident or commencement of illness.
- iv. which is not obtained within the terms of any reciprocal health agreements, wherever such agreements exist.
- e. exploratory tests unless they are normally conducted as a direct result of the condition which required referral to medical facilities.
- f. claims related to manual and/or hazardous labour unless declared to and accepted by us.
- g. the additional cost of accommodation in a single or private room, unless it is medically necessary or there is no alternative.
- h. the continued treatment, investigation or medication of a condition that existed or was being treated prior to departure.
- i. the cost of installing, replacing or repairing false teeth, crowns and bridges or dental work involving the use of precious metals.
- j. additional accommodation expenses where you claim under Section 1 for forfeited accommodation in the corresponding period due to the injury/illness giving rise to your claim.
- k. Any expenses incurred more than 18 months from the time you first received treatment for the injury or illness.

Conditions

1. If you are admitted to hospital and you are likely to remain in hospital for more than 24 hours, you must contact our nominated emergency service immediately. If you do not, this could mean we will provide no cover or we could reduce the amount we pay for medical expenses. If you receive medical treatment overseas and costs are likely to exceed A$1,000, or the equivalent in local currency, you must notify our nominated emergency service.
2. If you have to return to your normal country of residence under section 1 (Cancellation and Curtailment), or section 2 (Emergency Overseas Medical Expenses) our nominated emergency service must authorise this. If they do not, this could mean that we will not provide cover or we may reduce the amount we pay for your return home.
3. Wherever possible you must use medical facilities that entitle you to the benefits of any reciprocal health agreements.
4. We reserve the right to repatriate you to your normal country of residence when, in the opinion of the doctor in attendance and our medical advisers, you are fit to travel.

Please also refer to the General Exclusions and Conditions of this policy.

3 Hospital Cash Allowance

You are covered if you are receiving in-patient hospital treatment in a country outside of your normal country of residence for more than 48 hours for a benefit payment of $50 for the subsequent 24 hour period and a further $50 for each subsequent and complete 24 hour period up to the maximum shown in the Schedule of Cover. This benefit is only available where your claim has been accepted under section 2 (Medical and other expenses) of this policy.

You are not covered for

- a. any claim which is excluded under the General Exclusions applicable to this policy.
- b. an Epidemic, Pandemic or outbreak of an infectious disease or any derivative or mutation of such viruses (or arising directly or indirectly from these) or the threat, or perceived threat, of any of these.
- c. any claim which is excluded under the Exclusions applicable to section 2 or where you have not complied with relevant policy conditions.

Please also refer to the General Exclusions and Conditions of this policy.

4 Permanent Disability Benefit And Personal Death Benefit

You are covered in addition to any medical expenses claim paid under Section 2 for the amount shown in the Schedule of Cover if you have an Accident whilst you are on your trip and which is the sole and independent cause of your death, Permanent Total Disablement, Loss of Sight or Loss of Limb(s) within 12 months of the Accident.

Payment under this section in respect of all the consequences of an Accident shall be limited in total to the amount shown in the Schedule of Cover. In the event of your death within 12 months of the Accident, the total payment will be limited to the amount shown for death.

Permanent Total Disablement means that for the twelve months following your Accident you are totally unable to work in any occupation for which you are suited by experience, education or training and at the end of that time there is no prospect of improvement.

Loss of Limb(s) means complete physical loss of a hand or foot or complete loss of use of a hand, arm, foot or leg.

Loss of Sight means complete and permanent loss of sight in one or both eyes.

You are not covered for

- a. any claim which is excluded under the General Exclusions applicable to this policy.
- b. claims resulting from motorcycling and quad biking.
- c. claims arising out of manual and/or hazardous labour.
- d. claims arising out of disease, illness, self injury or natural causes.
- e. claims arising out of surgery unless as a direct result of the Accident.
- f. a claim for "Permanent Total Disablement" if at the date of the Accident you are over the statutory retirement age and are not in full time paid employment.

Aggregate Liability

- a. Except as stated below, Our total liability for all claims arising under the Policy during any one (1) Period of Insurance shall not exceed $7,500,000
- b. In the event that claims are made under the Policy which exceed the above Aggregate Limits of Liability, We shall reduce the payments made with respect to each Covered Person in such manner as We may determine. The capital benefits would be reduced proportionately to ensure an entitlement is paid to each person up to a maximum of $7.5m.

Please also refer to the General Exclusions and Conditions of this policy.

5 Baggage and Personal Effects

You are covered if, during your trip, your baggage and personal effects or valuables are stolen, accidentally damaged or are permanently for the lesser of:

- the repair cost, or
 - the replacement cost, or
 - the amount it would cost us to repair or replace the item(s) allowing for any trade discounts we are entitled to; or
 - the original purchase price.
- a. We have the option to repair or replace the baggage and personal effects or valuables instead of paying you.
 - b. The maximum amount we will pay for any item is fifty per cent (50%) of the amount shown in the Schedule of Cover except for valuables which is limited to $5,000 in total and electronic equipment which is limited to $5,000 in total.
 - c. Baggage and personal effects left in a motor vehicle are only covered if forced entry has been gained.

General Conditions

1. There is no cover under this policy where;
 - a. You are travelling overseas for medical treatment,
 - b. you have been diagnosed with a terminal condition (a condition where you have been advised has a life expectancy of less than 24 months from date of diagnosis) during the policy period (except for cancellation costs which may be incurred upon diagnosis),
 - c. You are travelling against doctor's advice.
2. There is no cover for cancellation costs, lost deposits and curtailment costs under this policy where you were aware or should have reasonably been aware that your travelling companion is;
 - a. travelling overseas for medical treatment,
 - b. has been diagnosed with a terminal condition (except for cancellation costs which may be incurred upon diagnosis),
 - c. is travelling against doctors' advice.
3. You must tell us if your plans for your trip include travel to areas affected or threatened by war or similar risks as set out in General Exclusion 1. We reserve the right not to cover such risks or, if we will cover them, to apply special terms or conditions and/or charge an additional premium as we think appropriate. No cover for such risks shall attach unless you accept such terms, including any additional premium, before you depart.
4. You must advise the claims handlers of any possible claim within 31 days of your return home. You must supply them with full details of all the circumstances and any other information and documents we may require.

5. You must keep any damaged articles that you wish to claim for and, if requested, send them to the claims handlers at your own expense. If we pay a claim for the full value of an article, it will become our property.

6. You must agree to have medical examination(s) if required. In the event of your death, we are entitled to have a post mortem examination. All such examinations will be at our expense.

7. You must assist us to obtain or pursue a recovery or contribution from any third party or other insurers by providing all necessary details and by completing any forms.

8. You must pay us back within 1 month of demand any amounts that we have paid on your behalf that are not covered by this insurance. However, in the event that emergency medical costs are incurred and prior to formal claim acceptance and approval, the insurer undertakes to meet such costs in full should the claim ultimately be accepted or to a maximum indemnified amount of $20,000 should the claim be denied post loss circumstance and as assessed in accordance with the policy terms, conditions and endorsements. This policy limit and coverage extension will not apply to medical costs incurred as the direct result of a diagnosed terminal illness, you are travelling against doctors' advice or you are travelling overseas to seek medical treatment.

9. You must take all reasonable steps to avoid or minimize any loss that might result in you making a claim under this insurance.

10. You must comply with all the terms, provisions, conditions and endorsements of this insurance. Failure to do so may result in a claim being declined.

11. Except for claims under sections 3, 4, and 7, this insurance shall only be liable for its proportionate share of any loss or damage that is covered by any other insurance.

12. We may take action in your name but at our own expense to recover for our benefit the amount of any payment made under this insurance.

13. We may at our option discharge any liability under this insurance by replacing or repairing any article or articles lost or damaged, or by issuing you with a Credit Voucher.

14. This insurance is non-transferable. If a trip is cancelled for any reason other than that described in section 1 then the cover for that trip terminates immediately and no refund of premium in whole or part will be made.

15. If you or anyone acting on your behalf makes any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in any way then this insurance shall become void, premiums non-refundable and all claims shall be forfeited.

16. If the insured trip is curtailed for any reason covered under this policy and the Insured does not hold a ticket for onward travel to their nominated final destination in the case of one-way travel or a ticket for return travel to their normal country of residence in the case of a return trip, insurers reserve the right to deduct the cost of a one way ticket per traveller to their ultimate destination. Travel to be comparable to the Insured's pre-booked travel arrangements.

17. The Insurer hereon agrees that in the event of a dispute arising out of this Insurance, the Insurer at the request of the Insured Person will submit to the jurisdiction of any competent Court in the Commonwealth of Australia. Such dispute shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice applicable in such Court.

What To Do In A Medical Emergency

The Emergency Service is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year for assistance with Medical Emergencies Only. Please note that this is not for casual enquiries.

You must notify our nominated emergency assistance service immediately of any serious illness or injury whilst abroad which necessitates admittance to a hospital as an in-patient, or before any arrangements are made for repatriation. A travelling companion may do this for you although most hospitals have a set procedure in place.

The Emergency Service is able to liaise with doctors and hospitals, worldwide to guarantee medical expenses, if medically necessary to arrange emergency repatriation with medical escort, to give guidance and help to other members of the party, or to pass a message to relatives.

This Insurance does not cover treatment or surgery which in the opinion of the Insurers and/or their representatives is not essential or can reasonably be delayed until you return to your normal country of residence.

Failure to notify our nominated emergency assistance service in accordance with the terms stated above may result in the amount payable under your claim being reduced.

Please have the following information available when calling the Emergency Service:

- your travel insurance certificate number
- dates of outward and inward travel
- details of the problem including the name and address of patient and nature of illness/accident
- name and telephone number of hospital and attending doctor
- details of usual doctor/general practitioner.
